May 2022 - 2023

We go together! 같이 갑시다!

1 Colonel Henry R. "Wolf" Jeffress, III
2 Colonel John D. "Wolf 2" Caldwell
3 Chief Master Sergeant Carlos
"Wolf Chief" Damian

What is your fondest memory of being here at the Wolf Pack?

Wolf: My first flight at Kunsan AB after the change of command. The very first landing was surreal and three things echoed in my mind. One, I have the privilege and honor to care for this entire team and installation. Two, don't screw up this landing. Three, this runway really needs to be replaced!

Wolf 2: My fondest memory is the day I took my wife around the installation to explain our mission and introduce her to the members of the Wolf Pack. As I was describing what we do, I was filled with an enormous amount of pride for the people and mission. I think in that moment it really hit me how special this assignment is and what an honor it is to serve as part of the leadership team. It's a memory that both my wife and I will never forget - the day I got to show off the Wolf Pack to someone very special to me.

Wolf Chief: My fondest memory of being here at the Wolf Pack was taking the guidon from Wolf. The transition from Wolf 61 and Wolf Chief 24 to us was unreal. Holding the staff came with so many emotions and so much excitement. Over the past year, there have been highs and lows with carrying the Wolf Pack's colors and I would not trade it in for any other Air Force experience I have ever had.

In what ways have you grown/learned from this experience?

Wolf: I definitely confirmed that family values are at the top of my priority list and maybe I earned a resilience badge having lived in Korea since the start of the pandemic. As much as I love our technological ability to video chat with loved ones thousands of miles away, it cannot replace a hug. In the words of one of my good friends in Vegas, "virtual presence is actual absence!"

Wolf 2: It's been a busy year, with real-world taskings and the runway closure. The events this leadership team encountered has tested our ability to handle dynamic situations, and I think I have gotten much better at navigating that field of opportunities and hazards that exists in the real world. I also learned that spending a year away from family is tough, and it takes strong and resilient relationships with both friends and family to make it through this assignment. I learned how lucky I am to have those relationships.

Wolf Chief: I will never be the same. Here, I truly learned what I have heard often in my life, "be careful because your questions can be directions, and your whispers can be shouts." This was the hardest and most uncomfortable position I have ever had. Wolf, Wolf II, and the absolutely outstanding Chief Master Sergeants I have served alongside each gave me so much insight. I will leave here with a heart and spirit filled with gratitude.

*"Children are the heroes of tomorrow.
May they grow to be gentle, vigorous, and wise."
-Bang Jeong Hwan,
the founder of Children's Day*

Children's Day (Fri, May 5th)

Children's Day is a national holiday in South Korea that celebrates children. It's an opportunity for parents to take a break from their busy lives and to spend quality time with their children. Children's Day in South Korea is celebrated on May 5th. This date, 5/5, has a certain symmetry to it and is therefore easy for people to remember.

Buddha's Birthday (Sat, May 27th)

The day of Buddha's birth is a public holiday and is largely celebrated by many people in South Korea. Many festivals are held across the country including the popular Lotus Lantern Festival in Seoul.

West Winds Golf Course

What is your best memory at the Golf Course?

While attending a turf-related department in Seoul for a year, I was able to learn a lot and interact with people working in the same field. I felt particularly rewarded when I realized that the knowledge I had gained in school was not in vain, as I could apply it while working on greens in recent years. 서울에서 잔디 관련 학과를 1년 다니면서 많은 것들을 배우고, 같은 분야에서 종사하시는 분들과 교류를 가질 수 있었습니다. 최근 몇 년 동안 그린 공사를 할 때에 학교에서 배웠던 지식을 사용하면서 1년의 배움이 절대 헛수고가 아니었다고 느꼈을 때 가장 보람을 느꼈습니다.

What is your favorite part about working at the West Winds Golf Course?

When working with employees on a project, I feel a sense of joy when each of them faithfully fulfills their assigned duties and the project is completed. 직원들과 함께 일하면서 프로젝트를 진행시 각자 맡은바 임무를 충실히 이행하여 프로젝트를 끝냈을 때 희열감이 듭니다.

What do you wish the Kunsan community knew about your programs?

When playing on the golf course, please avoid drinking bottled beverages if possible. Sometimes glass bottles are found on the course while working, and broken glass bottle fragments in the grass can pose a safety hazard. Let's prioritize safety and enjoy a fun game at our West Wind Golf Course. 골프 코스 안에서 플레이를 하실때 가끔적이면 병으로 된 음료는 안 드셨으면 합니다. 일을 하다보면 가끔 유리병이 코스 안에서 발견되는 경우가 종종 있습니다. 만약 깨진 유리병 조각이 잔디 안에 있으면 이는 안전사고로 이어질 수 있기 때문입니다. 안전 유념하시며 저희 웨스트 윈드 골프코스에서 재미있는 한 게임 즐기시기 바랍니다.
