11.11 Pepero Day

Pepero (빼빼로) Day is held annually on November 11, and is an observance in South Korea similar to Valentine's Day. It involves the gifting or exchange of Pepero snacks, a line of chocolate-dipped cookie sticks, with the intention of displaying affection for friends and loved ones. It is held on this day due to the resemblance of Pepero sticks, which are vertical that mirror the shortened date of 11/11. Pepero Day means "a day to convey love and friendship," and has been reborn as a global day recognized by people around the world. A few years ago, Pepero Day was so popular that it was mentioned in an American elementary school reference book.
